

Kitty Wallace (AHWD, ABR®, C2EX, CRS, e-PRO®, GREEN, RSPS, SFR, PSA) is the National Association of REALTORS® 2024 REALTOR® Party Fundraising Liaison. With over two decades of experience, she is Managing Broker of RE/MAX Integrity in Cle Elum, Wash., located in a small rural community east of Seattle.

Kitty is actively involved in the national, state, and local associations. She is an NAR Director and has served in various leadership roles. She was the Region 12 Fundraising RPAC Trustee and Chair of NAR's Major Investor Council, Broker Engagement Committee, and REALTORS® Relief Foundation. In 2020, Kitty joined the REALTOR® Safety Advisory Committee.

At Washington REALTORS®, she served as President, RPAC Chair, and Vice President of Government Affairs. Kitty's many notable contributions earned her recognition as the 2016 Washington REALTOR® of the Year. She also served as President of the Kittitas County Association of REALTORS®.

Kitty is passionate about REALTOR® advocacy and mentoring brokers in the ever-changing real estate industry. She continues to inspire others to invest in RPAC and to build a stronger future for the industry. She sets an example as a Platinum R, President's Circle, and Hall of Fame RPAC investor.

Beyond her professional commitments, Kitty is active in her community. And she enjoys traveling and various outdoor activities in her leisure time.
